Orchestra Concert April 5th

Local Man to be Main Line Soloist

Adolph Vogel, conductor of the Main Line Orchestra, has set Sunday afternoon, April 5, as the date for the next and third concert of the Main Line Orchestra, to be given in the Ardmore Theatre.

The orchestra is now hard at work on the difficult and interesting program that will be presented at that concert and will go through several extra rehearsals to perfect some of the technical difficulties and to make this the best concert that the organization has yet given.

As an innovation, the soloist will be accompanied in every section by the orchestra instead of the piano.

The orchestra and its sustaining association were gratified recently upon word from a musical critic that, in his opinion, the Main Line Orchestra is undoubtedly the best and most successful strictly amateur orchestra in this part of the country.

Soloist Announced.

Burton Piersol, baritone, of Narberth, will be the soloist at the next concert given by the Main Line Orchestra in the Ardmore Theatre on Sunday afternoon, April 5.

Mr. Piersol is well known to Philadelphia music lovers having been closely identified with musical interests there for some time. His fine voice and unusual experience have given him the right to be classified with the best voices that Philadelphia has given to the professional field.

The group of songs Mr. Piersol will sing will be accompanied by the orchestra. Other numbers on the program will include a movement from a symphony and other interesting works. The Main Line Orchestra is under the direction of Adolph Vogel.

Bandits Steal Car.

Narberth was treated to a visit by a group of auto bandits Sunday when a new seven-passenger limousine was stolen from Mr. Samuel K. White, lawyer and builder.

Mr. White, who lives at 505 South Narberth avenue, had gone to the home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph H. Shuff, and had left his machine, unlocked, parked on Rex road, which runs past one side of the house.

The bandits stopped their car on Narberth avenue and sent one of their number up Rex road. Mrs. Shuff, who was sitting near the window, noticed the thief. When brother's car she opened the front door and went outside.

"Get back into the house or I'll shoot you!" called out one of the bandits standing on the running-board of their own car.

By this time Mr. White also had been attracted outside by the excitement. He, too, was ordered inside and was restrained by his sister from attempting to interfere with the armed men.

The man driving the stolen car ran it across part of the lawn of Mrs. Shuff's house in escaping. The men left the car they drove up in and escaped in White's car.

John A. Caldwell, Narberth real estate dealer, said they passed him at a high rate of speed down Meeting House lane past the Belmont Race Track. They were not overtaken.

Mr. Leitch Elected.

The annual meeting of the Lower Merion Building & Loan Association was held last Tuesday night in the Merion Title Building, Ardmore. It collected almost $50,000 in dues and issued 1200 shares of stock in the new series.

At this same meeting an amendment to the by-laws was voted favorably upon, increasing the directors from nine to 12 members. Dr. Clifford H. Arnold and C. Frank Powell were elected as new directors; another member will be elected later.

In the election of officers there was only one change, that of the vice president. Mr. Daniel Leitch, of Essex avenue, Narberth, treasurer of the Merion Title & Trust Company, was elected in place of Parker Worrell, who resigned.

Ladies Learn Lots Listening to Leading Lecturer

Mrs. George E. Bean Talks on Current Events and New Books

The club meeting of March 17 opened with the usual discussion of business. Replies to letters regarding several House bills were read from Senators Chance, Stites and Pepper.

Mrs. Batchelor informed the members that the Women's Clubs had been urged to take additional action to push the law enforcement bill, which is in danger of being lost.

Mrs. Dunn announced that the recent card party had been a success, and that there will probably be another one in April.

Mrs. Mueller and her "Karnival" Committee are to have a card party in the gymnasium on Tuesday, March 24, at 2 o'clock. The proceeds are to buy material for aprons and house dresses for the "Karnival."

Nomination ballots have been mailed to club members and must be returned within one week.

The dates set for Mrs. Forbes Robertson Hale's lectures are April 2, at the home of Miss Ely, at 2 P. M.; April 3, Lower Merion High School, at 3 P. M., and April 3, Cynwyd Presbyterian Church in the evening.

Federation year books have been issued and sell for 25 cents. As heretofore, Mrs. Bean discussed the high lights of international affairs and those of the United States. In part, her talk was as follows: Germany, after President Ebert's death, displayed its first semblance of republicanism. It had planned a national holiday for the mourning of the war victims, intending to stir up a feeling of hatred and rebellion among its people. Instead, it really mourned the loss of Ebert, who had been six years in office and had really done much good for the country. On March 29 the German people will have their first opportunity to vote for a president. Alarmists say that the Crown Prince has a chance to return to the throne, but that is not likely, though some one of the Court staff may in some way slip in. There are six parties and the republicans have chosen Marx, a modern man, and a peace advocate. Two most important developments are the trade agreement between France and Germany, and the willingness of Germany to make a treaty with France in regard to the western border, thus insinuating that it will not take back Alsace-Lorraine. Germany is also willing to leave the decision of its eastern border to the World Court.

France has protected herself by building up an alliance with Poland, Czechoslovakia and Roumania. This method is expensive and carries no real security. But France is now ready to trust Germany. Great Britain is willing to guarantee the boundaries of France, Belgium and probably Italy, and is anxious to include Germany in the alliance.

It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of these steps toward peace. Germany will have to realize that she can go into the League on equality with other nations before a perfect state of peace is realized.

In our own country a train of peculiar circumstances have put President Coolidge where he is. It is possible that Harding might not have been elected again on account of the scandals during his administration and, possibly, too, that a Democrat might have been elected. The Vice Presidency is considered a political graveyard and as Vice President, Coolidge was

MUST BE IN

Street Petitions Due by April 13 at Latest.

Monday, April 13, is the closing day for the receipt of street paving petitions for work to be done this year. That date has not been officially declared by Council, but that is the policy on which the street paving plans are now based. There are eight street sections in Narberth which are unpaved and which are eligible to file petitions to be included in the present program. If the residents on those streets are not sufficiently interested to circulate the necessary petitions among their neighbors and to obtain signatures representing at least four-fifths of the abutting properties they will have only themselves to blame if their streets remain unpaved at the end of 1925. The streets from which petitions have not yet been filed are as follows:

Rockland avenue, from Narberth avenue to Railway Bridge.

Grove Place, from Rockland avenue to Woodside avenue.

Meeting House lane, from Iona to Montgomery avenues.

Woodbine avenue, from Iona to Montgomery avenues.

Hampden avenue, from Woodbine avenue to the north end.

Homewood avenue, from Sabine avenue to the north end.

Haverford avenue, from Essex to Conway avenues.

Since the last meeting of Council on the ninth the Homewood avenue petition has been practically completed and will undoubtedly be filed at the next meeting of Council. Frank Gioni, the well-known cement and stone contractor of 318 Woodbine avenue, started this week circulating a petition for Woodbine avenue. The copy for the proper form of the petition may be obtained from Robert F. Wood, 237 Forrest avenue.

George F. Weaver has sold his property, located at 204 Montgomery avenue, a single stone and stucco dwelling, with lot, 97½x167 feet, to Miss Kathryn A. Tobin, of Philadelphia. It was held at $11,500.

THIRTEENTH SERIES

New Shares Offered by Legion Building and Loan.

The Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association will open a new series on Tuesday, April 7, at the office of the association, 29 North Narberth avenue, at the bridge, from 7 until 9 o'clock.

The association was organized in 1920 and to date has in force 1893 single shares and 629 double shares. There are in force at the present time 36 mortgage loans aggregating the sum of $113,200 and stock loans, $13,674.

There are a great many reasons why one should save through the building and loan association system. One dollar per month for a single share or $2 per month for a double (short term) share will return to the stockholder in the sum of $200 per share at the expiration of 136 months as an average on the long term shares and 78 months as an approximate average on the short term series.

An early start will provide the sum necessary to send your boy or girl through college or provide a sum of money to start them out into the business world.

By investing in some shares once a year, usually most associations issue two series per year, over a period of time a series will be maturing each year and provide a definite sum as an annual income.

It is not necessary to take this money out if you desire to leave it with the association and receive six per cent. interest on your money. Start April 7.

"Karnival" News.

The final and definite dates set for the "Karnival" of the Community Club are May 1 and 2, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings. Keep your weed chains and galoshes out of the moth ball chest, as the great event will not be postponed even for a cloud-burst. Save your money and come early. There will be lots of pretty and useful things, and a tasty "Kafeteria" supper.

Like the birds, visitors to the South are returning.

Many Enjoy Junior High Pageant

Pupils from Narberth's Environns Participate

A Friday the thirteenth proved no detriment to the first annual Parents' Night given in the Junior High School in Ardmore last week. Several hundred parents responded to the school authorities' invitations to attend and Principal Edward N. Snow expressed himself as eminently pleased at the outcome of the night, the object of which was to acquaint the parents with the faculty and the school.

The parents were welcomed by Superintendent S. Edgar Downs, who told of some of the problems of the school. Then followed a pageant, "The Coming of the Mayflower," which was the main feature of the evening. Pupils from all grades were found in the cast.

The pageant was divided into five episodes. The first depicted the landing of the Pilgrims, the second, the first winter; the third, the first international treaty; the fourth, the first Thanksgiving, and the fifth showed the Pilgrims of a later day.

Following the program the Junior High building was thrown open to the inspection of the parents. In rooms 21, 22, 24 and the library there were exhibits from the school shops, art department, domestic science and academic departments.

The characters in the pageant: Spirit of the Past, Rosalie Shaw; Spirit of the Wilderness, Mary Miller Kress; Guardian Spirit of the Pilgrims, Margaret Walter; America, Janette Byall; Governor Carver, Oswald Smith; Governor Bradford, George Houghton; Captain Standish, John Baker; Elder Brewster, John Hand; John Alden, Wesley Duffield; Mr. Winslow, Robert Kessler; Mr. Allerton, Stanley Hoff; Dr. Fuller, Walter Prokosh; John Howland, Robert Woodward; Love and Wrestling Brewster, Robert Elmore and John Dautle; Bartle Allerton, William Esrey.

Other Pilgrims—Vernon Hammond, Jack Belsterling, Jack Everhart, Eric Cartmell, Albert Fretz. Mistress Brewster, Jane Knowlton; Mistress Carver, Ellen Shaw; Pricilla Mullins, Gene France; Elizabeth Tillie, Kathleen Quinn. Other Pilgrim Women—Julia Love, Mary Durning, Marjorie Castiglione, Agnes Downs, Margaret Beaver, Nancy Abernethy, Dorothy Woodbury, Virginia Chewning, Dorothy Gimber, Mary Louise Fox.

Sailor, George Brown; Massasoit, George Gerenbeck; Samoset, Edward Murray; Squanto, David Briggs.

Other Indians—Wilson Thompson, Doran Williams, William Duer, James Henwood, George Bridgeman, Henry Bomberger, Otto Duer, Horace Zipperlin, Morris Polinsky, Allen Carey, Thomas Libby, Edward Tague, Radley Cross, Joseph Fitch, Sam Brown, Patrick Brady.

Immigrants Representing—Spain, Betty White; Holland, Arabella Rainey; Ireland, Anna Miller; Russia, Clarence Cartmell; Norway, Douglas Fleming; France, William Helzer; Scotland, William Davis; Italy, Mary Warner; England, Francis Quinn; Jews, John Mulraney; Greece, Clementine Davit; Slavic Races, Joyce Hott.

Committees.—The Mayflower Pageant presented under the direction of Elizabeth B. Bratton and Edward H. Snow, assisted by Katherine K. Morss, Emily Hallauer and Harvey J. Harmon.

Pilgrim Ushers—Esther Brown, Helen Cameron, Marie Clayton, Virginia Metzler, Hope Burlingame, Constance Davis, Betty Swing, Elizabeth Carlisle, Mildred Gane, Blanche Morris.

R. B. C.

The R. B. C. Triangle Class meets every Sunday in the Presbyterian Church. If you want a real good lesson come over Sunday morning at 9.45. Mr. Whitman is our leader. Any boy between the ages of 16 and 20 will be welcome to the class.

No Local Beneficiaries.

Residents of the Main Line are being called by telephone and urged to buy certain toilet articles, floor polishes and extracts for the benefit of an organization calling itself the Babies' Milk Fund.

To avoid confusion in the minds of the generous contributors to the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia and to various local organizations, it can definitely be stated that the following are not in any way connected with or benefited by the sale of these articles:

The Main Line Federation of Churches.

The American Red Cross Well Baby Clinics.

The Visiting Nurse Committee, Main Line Citizens' Association.

Social Service Department, Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Health Council, Lower Merion township and Narberth.

It is suggested that persons wishing further information about the fund call the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

TO ENLARGE CHURCH LEAGUE NEXT SEASON

Wayne and Bryn Mawr Asked to Join—Ardmore Wins Title.

Plans for the continuation and enlargement of the Main Line Church Basketball League next year will be made at a meeting of the league, which will be held in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. Monday evening, April 6.

The league which was organized this year has prospered and grown rapidly. It now consists of six teams, two each from Cynwyd, Narberth and Ardmore.

Next season's plans call for the inclusion of Bryn Mawr and Wayne in the league. Invitations to join have been sent to several churches in both communities and representatives from these are expected to attend the April meeting.

The Ardmore Presbyterians clinched the league championship for this season last Thursday when they vanquished their closest rivals, the Narberth Methodists by a 25-12 score. Both teams have one more game to play, but it will have no effect on the championship.

The Ardmore quintet which is made up largely of Lower Merion High School stars, has been leading the league race the greater part of the season. It was pushed hard for honors, however, by the Narberth Methodist five, which had in its line-up Bob Gilfillan this season's Lower Merion captain, and Bob Savill, last year's brilliant Maroon and White centre.

Saturday evening the title winning Ardmore Presbyterians added another scalp to their belt when they took the count of the Cynwyd Presbyterians 61-26 in a game in the Ardmore Y. The absence of Fort, Young and Custard, regulars in the Cynwyd line-up, was blamed by the locals for the debacle.

The night before, Friday, Cynwyd suffered another reversal when the Cynwyd Methodists went down to defeat at the hands of the Narberth Presbyterians. The final tally was 25-12. The game was played in the gymnasium of the Cynwyd school.

Joint Meeting.

The next regular monthly meeting of the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion will be held Monday, March 23, 8.15 P. M. This will be a joint meeting with the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion and all Legion members are invited to bring their wives and mothers. This meeting will be devoted entirely to a discussion of welfare work among disabled veterans. Miss Kennedy, of the Grays Ferry Hospital, will speak regarding the welfare work being done there. Miss Kennedy has had a wide experience in this line of work and is well qualified to speak on the subject. Mrs. W. H. Biester, Jr., State president of the American Legion Auxiliary, will speak of the work being done throughout the State.

Everyone interested in helping mentally or physically disabled veterans should hear these speakers.

Monday night, March 23, 8.15 o'clock, Elm Hall.

Explains Position on Bonds

Councilman Redifer Not Obstructing Issue

Councilman A. Perry Redifer feels that he was placed in an unfair light by the report of the March meeting of Council, which was printed in this paper last Saturday, and that the remarks ascribed to Robert F. Wood, secretary of the Narberth Street Improvement Association, indicated a failure on the part of Mr. Wood and his associates to understand the motives which have influenced him in his attitude toward street improvement and the bond issue in particular.

Mr. Redifer, whose service as clerk and as a member of the Borough Council antedates that of any other man, has always given freely of his time and business judgment to safeguarding the finances of the Borough. Mr. Redifer has always realized the necessity of improving the unpaved streets and had become convinced, before the Narberth Street Improvement Association came into being last summer, that a bond issue was the correct way to handle it. He says that instead of opposing the bond issue he was in favor of it and that if the members of Council as a whole had not been of similar mind and had not used their influence to discourage the only organized opposition which appeared, the result might have been different.

So far as delay in preparing the necessary ordinance is concerned, Mr. Redifer says that he considered it absolutely necessary to have a fairly accurate idea of how many streets were to be paved and how much it would cost. That was why he thought it would be better to wait until petitions had been received from all of the streets desiring pavements. He feared that if this was not done and the paving should go legitimately entitled to share the benefits of the bond issue, might be left out. If such a situation had been permitted to develop and if a considerable amount of the bond issue funds had become tied up in liens on the streets already paved there would not then be money enough available to take care of the streets which had been left over. He wants to make sure, if possible, that this bond issue is going to take care of all the streets so that the troubles which have arisen from that source may be permanently ended.

Mr. Redifer also says that there are a number of details which have to be decided before the bond issue ordinance can be prepared. One of these details is the rate of interest which these bonds will bear, and he could see no necessity for rushing into the money market and taking the interest terms which might then be prevailing if by waiting until other preliminaries were settled there might be an opportunity to get a lower rate of interest. He made known the interesting information that he had been receiving inquiries from banking circles in reference to the proposed Narberth loan and that he thought it would be possible to get a reasonably low rate of interest and possibly a good premium if the matter was not handled too precipitately.

The bond issue ordinance will be ready for its first reading at the next meeting of Council on April 13, said Mr. Redifer. He added that he thought funds could be available by July and he could see no reason, so far as the financing is concerned, why the pavements could not be laid this year on those streets from which proper petitions have been received up to the April meeting of Council. He said that he was just as anxious to have the work done this year as any one else.

Old Schoolhouse Sold at Wynnewood.

A tract of three acres on north-east side of Wynnewood avenue, at corner of Lancaster avenue south of Wynnewood station, including the old Wynnewood Public School Building, has been sold by John P. P. Lathrop to R. W. Verner for $75,000. The tract will be improved with dwellings of the English and Colonial type. It has lately been used as a nursery.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

A translated Latin play was given at Haverford College on Monday, the 16th of March. A party of pupils from the junior high school attended it under the guardianship of the Misses Jenkins and Church and Mr. Wilson. It was very interesting as well as helpful to the pupils who are now studying Latin.

The ninth grade gave a St. Patrick's Day party on Tuesday evening in the assembly. It was a great success and enjoyed by all.

Last Tuesday, the 17th of March, the 8-A boys were defeated by the 7-B in volley ball. This makes the 7-B tie for the volley ball championship with the ninth grade. The tie will be played off next Tuesday.

On Saturday, the 21st, Narberth will play its last game for the season in the junior high school gym. It is with the Church Farm School, of Downingtown, Pa. Admission is 10 cents. Everyone is cordially invited. The probable line-up for the game will be as follows:

Centre—Dothard.
Right guard—Purse.
If Bob Foote, who has a bad knee, is sufficiently recovered it will greatly aid the team's prowess.

Through the kindness of Mr. Henry Frye, of Narberth, the ninth grade civics class with Miss Jenkins spent Thursday morning in the Philadelphia Law Courts observing the procedure of how cases are handled.

Editors—Elizabeth Terry and Richard Banks.

Legion Auxiliary Notes.

The March meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary unit of Harold D. Speakman Post 356 was held Tuesday evening, the 17th instant, at the home of Mrs. Edw. E. Bassert, on Woodside avenue. Not only was there a record attendance for a regular monthly meeting but five new applications for membership were presented and favorably acted upon.

Finance Officer John A. Mowrer, Jr., of the Narberth Post, may be prepared to receive a number of checks in the near future from buddies who we know are going to get she saw him climbing into her "curtain lectures" from friend wife, likewise friend mother and friend sister and daughter about getting lined up in the Legion so as to render them eligible to membership in the auxiliary.

Your correspondent knows of a number of times when a recalcitrant spouse had just got settled in an easy chair on Legion night to be handed his hat and reminded that there was something going on at borough hall that needed his answer to the roll call.

The auxiliary has been invited to join the Post in their next regular meeting, Monday evening, March 23, at 8 o'clock, which will be a joint meeting and in which matters affecting Legiondom in general will be discussed. The auxiliary's work in particular will be presented by none other than State President Mr. William H. Biester, Jr., Miss Jean Donaghy, president, Montgomery-Bucks Biscuity Council, will be with us at this meeting. Whether or not the State commander of the Legion will be present your correspondent does not know. Commander Sparks is keeping that to himself but she does not know the foregoing auxiliary officers will be with us.

That the auxiliary will be in evidence in large numbers seems certain from reports coming in, and those of the Legion who come prepared to don the feed bag will not go away disappointed.

D. A. R. Entertained.

The members of the Doctor Benjamin Rush Chapter, D. A. R., were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. John C. Nash, at Overbrook, Saturday afternoon, March 14. Mrs. Laura Garhard, of Philadelphia, rendered a number of vocal numbers and Mrs. Joseph Caley, State corresponding secretary, gave an inspiring talk on the State Conference which is to be held in Philadelphia in November.

This chapter, though organized but a few years ago, has been given a very important part on the program. Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, president general, and many other national officers will be present.

Mesdames Fristan B. du Marais, 200 Woodside avenue; Hugh G. Martin, 207 Wayne avenue; J. H. Miller, 426 Haverford avenue; Charles M. Irwin, 130 Linwood avenue, Ardmore; Sarah Gibson Langlois and the Misses Marie L. Gorin and Maud M. Gibson, of Atlantic City, will represent the chapter at the National Congress in Washington the week of April 19.

The next stated meeting of the chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Miller, Haverford avenue, April 4, when an interesting program will be rendered. All members are urged to be present and an invitation is extended to all who are eligible to membership.

To Travel 2200 Miles.

Announcement is made of the successful candidates for the coveted spring tour of the Dramatic Association of Oberlin College. Sixty-seven people presented 83 parts, and the judges report that because of the abundance of excellent material the selection was extremely difficult.

S. Lucia Keim, a graduate of the Narberth High School, 1922, was one of the 18 selected.

The club, on its trip, will travel a total of 2200 miles and will include a tour through the Berkshire Hills of western Massachusetts, a boat passage down the Hudson River, travel through the hill country of northern Pennsylvania, a day and night in New York City, a visit to Yale University and points of interest in the Connecticut Valley.

The schedule of engagements of the club are as follows:

April 1—Springfield, Mass.
April 2—Dalton, Mass.
April 3—Lancaster, Pa.
April 4—Stamford, Conn.
April 5—New York City.
April 6—Stratford, Conn.

To Entertain.

The ladies of the Evangel Baptist Church will entertain at tea Mrs. Robert G. Keighton, mother of their new pastor, on Friday, March 27, from 2 until 4 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Monks, 200 Greyling avenue.

A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the congregation and their friends.

M. E. Missionary Society.

The Women's Home Missionary of the Methodist Church will meet at the church on Tuesday, March 24, 1925, at 12 o'clock.

The covered dish luncheon will be followed by the regular business meeting.

All women are cordially invited to attend.

Annual Gym Exhibit.

The annual gym exhibition of the Lower Merion High School will be given Friday, April 3. Physical Director N. Herbert Grigson is in charge of the program.

Several big real estate deals are on the tapis.

Golfers have made the most of the recent fine days.

It will soon be time for the annual clean-up days.

A few warm days and vegetation will be on the jump.

IN MEMORY OF MY DOG BINGO

By Henry Banks.
(A Lower Merion High School Composition)

Bingo was my puppy's name.
I called him for that dog of fame
Of which the college song is writ;
Which on the campus makes a hit.

My puppy had no pedigree.
He came from humble stock, you see;
His color was as black as night,
Save on his breast a vest of white.

"He is no good," the neighbors said it.
But he had one good deed to his credit—
A burglar tried to lift the sash,
But Bingo barked! He got no cash!

Now of my dog am I bereft,
One grievous day the house he left,
But ne'er returned, for then, alas,
He met his fate on the railroad track.

There was no helping hand to save;
They say the track dug his grave.
We miss the love-light in his eyes,
And grieve o'er Bingo's sad demise.

A FEW ITEMS OF PERSONAL MENTION

A surprise party in honor of Mrs. W. H. McNiven was given by Mrs. L. B. Edgerton at the latter's home on Chestnut avenue Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. McNiven with their sons, John and James, are soon to move to Ardmore.

Mrs. George F. Michaelsen and daughter Eleanor, of Haverford avenue, are guests at Galen Hall, Atlantic City.

Mrs. Louise Hinchman and daughter, Katharine, are making their home at 108 Chestnut avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Burton Piersol, of Avon road, will broadcast from station WEAH next Wednesday night.

The Misses Juliet and Margaret Shaw were among the participants in the American Legion fashion show at the Junior High School Building, Ardmore, last night.

Our announcement of the arrival of the first crocuses has brought forth the further information that Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, of Hampden avenue, had daffodils in bloom on Sunday the fifteenth.

Mrs. W. H. Hartel, of Avon road, is visiting in Greenville, Ohio.

The building adjacent to the defunct Log Cabin was the subject of attention by Dr. W. D. Smedley's wrecking crew this week. It was condemned to make way for the new building of the Merion Title and Trust Company.

Mrs. R. L. Watrous and children have returned to their home on Avon road.

Mr. David G. Nixon, of Iona avenue, is able to be about after a severe case of pneumonia. Mrs. Nixon and their children are still on the sick list, however.

Mrs. W. H. Whitten, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Adolph Vogel, has returned to her home in Huntingdon, W. Va.

We were told something the other day which we can't help but tell you, and we do so with considerable pride: A Narberth man, one who thinks and observes, said: "I like to come into your store, your clerks are courteous and have an interest in customers that makes you feel like coming again."

This made us feel good—Respect and Confidence of our customers.

"We aim to please" means nothing if we don't please. I believe our clerks have the kind of disposition which means "please"—and make you feel the better for coming.

For next week we are giving you a saving on Canned Goods—not merely Canned Goods, but the best Canned Goods.

The Ja-Nar Radiator Cover

hides unsightly radiators and protects your walls and decorations

DESPITE the most classic radiator design that you can buy, if it is left bare, it is not only ugly, but the heat from it stains walls and decorations, ruining the harmony and beauty of your room.

No proud owner of a home which has cost him twenty thousand dollars or upwards is satisfied with these conditions—nor need he endure them.

Any such home owner can, for a sum in keeping with the rest of the appointments in his home, use Ja-Nar covers to convert his unsightly radiator into a beautiful piece of furniture, and at the same time overcome forever stained walls and ruined decorations.

Perfectly insulated so that you can place books, vases, flowers, etc., on it—made of finest furniture steel to cover either high or low radiators. Finished in mahogany, walnut, ivory, or any other finish to match your scheme of decoration.

The Ja-Nar Radiator Cover will also automatically control the temperature of the room if you desire. Why not arrange now to have one or more of your rooms Ja-Nar equipped? You can view them at our office.

Ask the Ja-Nar man to come and see you

He will explain just how the Ja-Nar Radiator Cover works and how much it costs to cover your ugly radiators and protect walls and decorations. Use the coupon.

SUBSCRIPTION SLOW BUT WORK GOES ON FAST

Dr. Van Ness Endorses Boy Scout Drive.

Lee Terry is a little fellow with a big heart. He's only 10 years old, not quite old enough to be a Boy Scout, but in two years he'll get over that handicap.

Lee is not a scout—yet; though he doesn't let a little thing like that keep him from doing a good deed. Lee is big enough to read the newspapers and his favorite journal is Our Town. Going through his paper the other day he happened to notice that the scouts were asking for a little money to pay the running expenses this year and being a helpful sort of a chap he dug into his savings and brought forth 25 cents, which he promptly mailed to Mr. E. T. Wolf, the treasurer; and Mr. Wolf wants to tell Lee Terry that his contribution is one of the best things he's had in the mail for many a day.

If a little shaver like Lee can do a big thing like this it shouldn't be hard for some of the bigger boys—no age-limit to this word "boys"—to do likewise. And if there are any people holding back because they think that quarters and half-dollars will not be welcomed with open hands they are much mistaken. Incidentally, father and son contributions are always welcome, just as welcome as mother and daughter donations. You will note Lee's father subscribed too. Everybody is welcome on the roll of honor and though Our Town will gladly publish the names of all contributors that will be the limit of publicity.

No mention will be made of the sum you subscribe; but it should be a matter of personal pride just to get your name in. The following names have been added to our last list:

Leroy A. King, V. O. Krauskop, Daniel Baird, C. L. Brearly, Carl B. Metzger, A. J. Loos, John A. Cohee, F. T. Van Auker, A. E. Wohler, Peter Eidenberg, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Campbell, F. M. Justice, George A. Bach, D. E. MacCormick, Ellen S. Brinton, Charles A. McIntire, W. J. Odiorne, Eugene H. Davis, F. L. Terry, Master Lee Terry, Warren A. Bossert, Joseph Smyth, George Henry, C. H. Bartlett, William H. Creamer, Jr., C. R. Starn, J. W. Ferguson, Dr. W. Zentmayer, C. Arley Farmer, Robert W. Caldwell, H. C. Fenno, Virginia M. Speck, Rev. John Van Ness, Mrs. A. H. Durbin, T. Noel Butler, J. Henry Knapp, Jr., Robert E. Pattison, Jr., Joseph C. Taylor, W. C. Claghorn, W. P. Nash, Harvey W. Monks, C. H. Crane, J. Raiken, Henry Wood Shelton, Albert H. Nulty, Samuel Laird, Henry Narrigan, H. C. Keim, W. J. Henderson, Nellie Monnington, E. K. Monnington.

Henry Wood Shelton mailed his subscription all the way from California, where he receives "Our Town" each week. Mr. Shelton has three boys of his own and is the sort of a daddy who is thoroughly appreciated by these boys. That he is a pretty good friend of the Narberth Boy Scouts is shown by his long-distance subscription to the fund.

Another good friend is Dr. Van Ness, of the Presbyterian Church, whose name appears in this week's roll of honor. The hard-working and more or less despondent treasurer, Mr. Wolf, received with Dr. Van Ness' subscription the following endorsement:

"Enclosed is my subscription to the work of the Boy Scouts of Narberth. I congratulate you upon the splendid success of this work in Narberth. It is surely a worthwhile work—the moulding of these plastic lives and the making of real manhood. I am delighted that so many of the boys of my church are enjoying the advantages of this movement. Command me if I can be of any personal service.

"Cordially yours,
"JOHN VAN NESS."

Dr. Van Ness recognizes not only the value of scouting as "a worthwhile work in the making of real manhood," but also the "splendid success of the work in Narberth."

Dr. McLinn expressed himself in a similar vein last week. As everyone knows, scouting is not in any sense sectarian. Every church in the borough has its representatives in the troop. Every clergyman appreciates the fact that scouting co-operates with the church and the school in developing better boys.

Speaking of the "splendid success" of the Narberth troop, to again quote Dr. Van Ness, last Monday's meeting broke another attendance record—67 boys reported. In addition to these there were three scoutmasters, some of the committeemen and residents of Narberth who came to look the troop over. As the scout-house is only supposed to hold 20, the effect was somewhat sardish. The committeemen stood outside.

But even with these endorsements the required total is still far in the offing—and though it isn't the pleasantest job in the world to beg money either through the columns of this accommodating newspaper or by word of mouth, it looks as if it'll have to be done.

Funny thing, some people have written in, saying that the present condition, meaning the dilapidated exterior of the scout-house, is responsible for their holding back, implying, presumably, that any outfit with such a drab looking house deserves no support. Funner still, that is one of the big reasons for this begging business, as was cleverly and demitely stated in the appeal. So if any South Side eyes have been offended by the way the scout-house decorates the landscape now is just the time for the owners of these eyes to send in their subscriptions. Supersensitive residents have two good reasons—esthetic and philanthropic—for doubling their ordinarily much appreciated donations.

And of course if there are any residents of the North Side or the Park who would like to see the appearance of Elmwood and Essex avenues improved, why there is no reason at all why they should not come to the rescue. So that's that!

For the last few months the interior of the scout-house has been more of a handicap to the scouts than the exterior. Last Monday night it was decided unanimously by the Troop Committee that immediate action was necessary to make more room for the boys.

And work is now under way. The porch will be enclosed by a new front which will give greater floor space and a generally better outside appearance. Of course this is only a temporary improvement. The troop is increasing in numbers so fast that further changes will have to be made in the near future. The new additions will be a good start, however. They are being so carried out that they will be a nucleus around which a more complete plant may be developed.

All the happy householders of Narberth know that repairs cost money; that improvements do not grow on trees. So let us say once more—if you have not already subscribed, please mail your contributions to Edwin T. Wolf, Treasurer, Narberth Boy Scouts, Narberth, Pa., and kindly do it today.

Additional names will be published next week.

BEETLES HAVE SPREAD

Menace This Year Promises to Be Serious.

Despite the combined efforts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and the Federal Government, the Japanese beetle has not only extended the sweep of its devastation for miles beyond the 1924 quarantine area around Philadelphia, but has broken out in a new quarter in this State. Such is the news from the State Department of Agriculture.

The Jap beetle gave suburban gardeners and planters endless trouble last year. Organizations in the Main Line district joined in a campaign against the pest.

Secretary Willits, of the State Department of Agriculture, and Professor C. H. Hadley, who is in charge of Pennsylvania's battle against the beetle, say the scourge has become a far greater menace than ever before.

They predict that the farmers of central Pennsylvania will suffer tremendous losses, and that the beetle may extend its operations throughout the entire State unless the Legislature makes liberal provision for the fight against it.

The new quarter of infestation is Montgomery Island, in the Susquehanna River, between Union and Northumberland counties, about 150 miles from Philadelphia.

In the last nine years the beetles have spread over 3500 square miles of country in the Philadelphia district. The beetles were originally found in 1916 in the neighborhood of Riverton, N. J.

Today the infested area takes in all southern New Jersey, from a point slightly north of Princeton. In Pennsylvania the beetle now holds a grip on the lower halves of Bucks and Montgomery counties, all of Philadelphia and Delaware counties and almost the entire eastern half of Chester county. It has also worked southward into the State of Delaware, as far as the city of Wilmington.

The quarantined area always extends a few miles beyond the infested area. The extent of the quarantined area of 1925 will be determined by the United States Department of Agriculture on data submitted by L. B. Smith, in charge of the Riverton station. It is probable several weeks may elapse before Washington makes its decision, as quarantine work will not commence until June, when the full-grown beetles come above ground.

"If it were not for the outbreak on Montgomery Island, and the worryment over funds to finance the 1925 work, we would feel elated over our progress in the fight against the beetle," said Professor Hadley. "Through the Riverton station, from which Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and the Federal Government conduct the fight, we have established three different kinds of parasites, which can be counted upon ultimately to battle the beetles.

"Our greatest success has been with the tachinid, which kills the adult beetle. This parasite lays its eggs on the shoulder of the beetle, particularly the female. The larvae of these bore into the beetle and in the end kill it. Almost as soon as the boring process begins, the beetle crawls away to die.

"We have had some success also with two parasites which kill the grubs."

Now is the time for owners of lawns and caretakers of golf courses to begin the fight against the Japanese beetle, the State Department of Agriculture advises.

About one inch underground, in nearly every lawn and golf green, are little armies of grubs, waiting for June and its warmth, when they will sally forth to gorge on foliage, grass, shrubs, early ripening fruit and field crops.

These grubs can be destroyed in their lairs with a solution of cyanide or carbon bisulphide emulsion. After this is flushed upon the ground it should be washed down with an equal quantity of water.

STRESSES GOOD HABITS

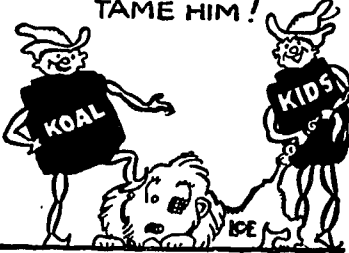

Hi-Y Also Hears of Need of Proper Reading.

The value of good habits and good appearance were stressed by Mr. C. C. Perrin, insurance man of Philadelphia, in a talk given before the Hi-Y Club in the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night. Proper reading and good books were also given their share of praise.

Gene Flues, Penn football player, was listed to speak to the club, but was unable to keep his engagement.

Locked on your roof

---right over your old shingles

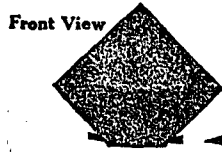

No need to rip off your old, worn-out shingle roof. You can lay Genasco Latite Shingles right over old wood shingles. Thousands of buildings all over the United States already have been re-roofed the "Genasco Way."

Think what this means! No money or time wasted in tearing off the old roof. No dirt-littered lawns, walks or attics. No exposing your home to damage by weather while re-roofing!

Equally important—you get fire-safety as well as weather-safety. You also get a double roof that keeps your home warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

Genasco Latite Shingles are water-proofed with the world-famed Trinidad Lake Asphalt Cement. They are surfaced with granulated slate in three attractive, unfading colors—red, green and blue-black.

The double butts of Genasco Latite Shingles cast a "shadow line" that gives distinction to a roof.

Front and back views of a Genasco Latite Shingle showing the "key"—invisible on the completed roof—that locks each shingle to the others. They are especially well adapted for laying over old, worn-out wood shingles.

Urges Miss Rohrer For Merion School

Downs Suggests She be Made Principal

Miss Mary M. Rohrer, formerly of the Lower Merion School staff, but now assistant county superintendent in the schools of Huntingdon county, has been urged by Superintendent S. E. Downs as the principal for the new Merion school now being built. He recommended her selection last week in his report to the Board of Education.

Because of the enrollment of Merion students in the Cynwyd school, Mr. Downs declared he thought only five lower grades would be needed in Merion next year.

Other important points in the superintendent's month message was a statement that high school enrollments, and consequently tuitions, from Narberth were increasing and a declaration that the present minimum salary of $2100 to senior high school teachers was too low to obtain well-trained, experienced men.

Said Mr. Downs in his report: "I recommend the selection of Miss Mary M. Rohrer as primary grade teacher and principal of our new Merion School. She taught seven years in the schools of Huntingdon county and eight years in the primary department of our Bryn Mawr School. She acted as supervisor of the primary building when the principal was in the new school on Bryn Mawr avenue."

"In 1922 Miss Rohrer accepted an appointment as assistant county Superintendent of Huntingdon county. She has been working in that capacity since, but wishes to return to Lower Merion. Since she left she has taken courses in administration and supervision at the Teachers' College, Columbia University, and will return this summer for an additional course there. Enrollments of children in the Cynwyd School from the Merion district indicate that in all probability we will need teachers in only the five lower grades at Merion next year, hence we shall want a principal who can also assume the full duties of a regular teacher."

"Fine progress is now being made by the contractor of the Merion building. It is hoped that it will be entirely completed before September first. If it is not, we will be able to manage temporarily by transporting the children to our Cynwyd School."

"A very delightful demonstration of the work in music in the elementary schools of our township was conducted recently under the management of Miss Staley. Dr. Dann, former head of the Music Department of the State, held a conference of supervisors at the Junior High School Building, 1; Ashland. This was attended by 107 instructors from all parts of Eastern Pennsylvania. The entire group was furnished a full meal by the cafeteria management of the Junior High School. All expressed great appreciation of the efforts made by those in charge of the meeting and of the courtesy of our Board in providing the unusual feature of a specially prepared luncheon."

"In addition to the five probable new rooms at Merion, it is probable that we shall need additional teachers as follows:

"Second grade, Junior High School Building, 1; Ashland School, 1; Junior and Senior High Schools, 3."

"There will be a considerable increase in the number of ninth year pupils from Narberth, hence the tuition fees will be greater than at present."

"Miss Adelaide Ammerman reported, Monday of this week, that she would be able to do some work the remainder of the year, hence I have added her to our list of substitutes, subject to call."

"It is very difficult to secure efficient, well-trained experienced men as senior high school teachers at our initial maximum salary of $2100. I suggest that the superintendent be authorized to extend this initial salary, if necessary, to $2500 for the heads of senior high school departments."

"The boys who are working for positions in the high school band are making strenuous efforts to qualify. They hope to make their appearance before the close of the year."

"The junior high school physical training exhibition (of boys and girls), is scheduled for Saturday evening, March 28. (This is postponed from the 27th so as to avoid a conflict with the Bryn Mawr scholarship entertainment.) The senior high school exhibition will be held Friday, April 3. The senior high school class play is scheduled for April 17. The senior high school desires to entertain the board at dinner, Wednesday evening, May 13, and the junior high school, Wednesday evening, June 10.

L. M. AT STATE

Former High Students Garner Honors at College.

Lower Merion is represented again this year in girls' sports at Penn State. Two former L. M. students, Miss Ellen A. Bullock, '27, of Gladwyne, and Miss Mary V. Huggler, '28, of Bryn Mawr, have just been chosen on the basketball teams representing their respective classes in the inter-class contests which began March 3.

Since her arrival at State in the fall of 1923, Miss Bullock has been upholding the spirit of Lower Merion in girls' sports there. She made her class hockey, basketball and track teams last year, her class hockey team again this year, and the all girls' group of five members in tennis, which group is annually selected from the entire female student body at State directly following the tennis season.

Miss Bullock has been active in various other phases of Penn State work, too. She is a member of both the French and Spanish clubs there; she organized and was unanimously elected President of the L. M. Club of State; she was recently chosen Women's Representative on the Editorial Staff of the Penn State Froth; she is a Fourth Degree member of the Penn State Grange, and chairman of its Debate and Publicity committees; and she was selected by elimination try-outs a short time ago to take part in the Sophomore Speaking Contest at State.

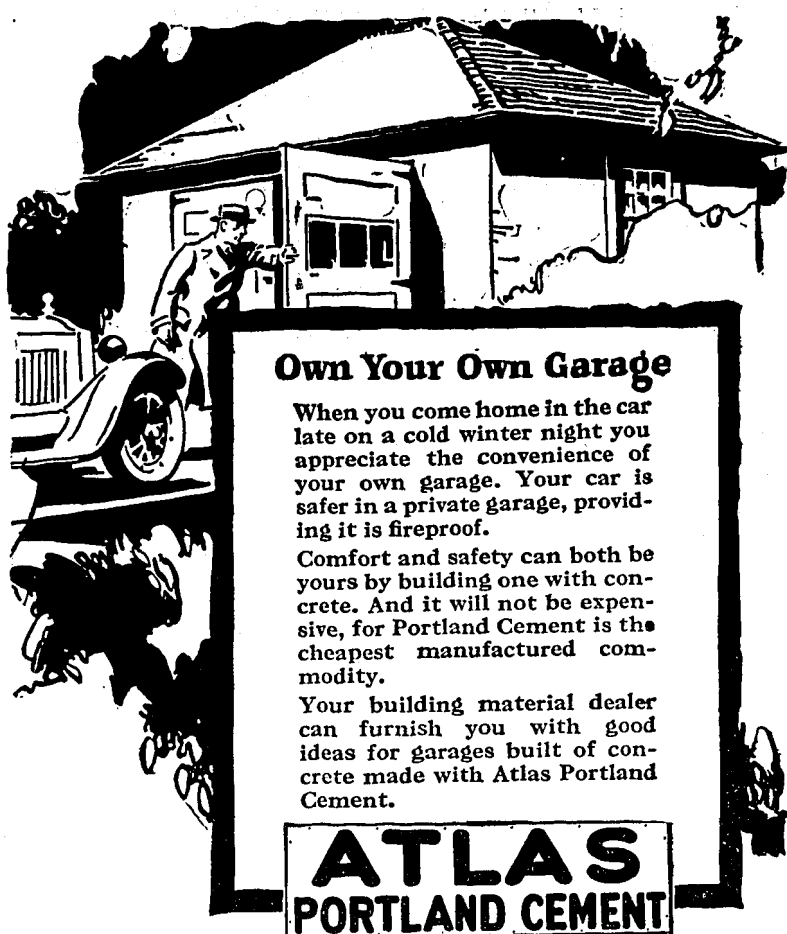

COUNTRY CLUB BUYS

Site On Spring Mill Road, Near Bryn Mawr, for Golf Course.

The Philadelphia Country Club has acquired a site for a new golf course and clubhouse, it was announced yesterday, on Spring Mill road north of Bryn Mawr, at a cost of $200,000.

Three adjoining tracts of land, totaling 208 acres, have been purchased. A 100-acre farm known as Bellevue was acquired from Richard G. Wood; 68 acres, with a residence known as Woldenfels, were purchased from the estate of Jonathan R. Jones; the remaining 40 acres belonged to the estate of William J. Taylor.

Golf experts, it was said, before the sale was negotiated had reported the site was ideal for an 18-hole course. The residence on the Jones tract will be made into a clubhouse.

The Senior Luther League

The meetings of the Senior Luther League have been most interesting. On March 8 entertainment was furnished by Herman Roschine, who played the saxophone, and Godfrey Elliott, with the cornet. Both were from Bethany Christian Endeavor Society, of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

On March 15 four members of the league presented arguments pro and con on the question "Resolved, That Christ's Methods of Personal Work Are Most Practical." Affirmative, Ruth B. Hoffsten and Robert Gerhard; negative, William Kaehler and Raymond Maxwell.

Next Sunday evening the league will have the benefit and pleasure of a talk by Oscar Carlson, of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mount Airy. It will surely be inspiring, so don't miss it.

The officers of the Junior Luther League are: President, Martha Maxwell; vice president, Julia Robinson; secretary, Helen Krout, and treasurer, Clyde Jones.

The Juniors are planning a pleasant evening in the form of a measuring party. Be on the lookout for it.

Jane Murray and Julia Robinson are on the program for next Sunday.

A car has been invented that can be made to move sidewise as well as forward and backward. Isn't the pedestrian to be given even a sporting chance?

TWO FINE CARS

More and more the Maxwell and Chrysler cars are becoming conspicuous on the roads hereabouts.

BOOK REVIEWS

An interesting but varied selection of books has been chosen for review this week. All six are now ready for circulation in the library.

"Matilda, Governess of the English," by Sophia Cleugh, is, without any question, pure romance. Miss Cleugh has taken as heroine of her tale an apparently plain little orphan girl just out of school. As governess to the children of a duchess she lives a happy life, and falling heir to some of the cast-off clothing of the duchess' family, the little governess finds herself beautiful and is found beautiful by a handsome young man. Although engaged to a Lady Victoria the young man spends much time and thought upon Matilda and so awakens her interest in himself. But it would not do to tell all that happens. It is enough to say that this book can be highly recommended to those who enjoy romance plus a happy ending.

"Orphan Island," by Rose Macaulay, is an amusing satire on England and English life. To do this Miss Macaulay has contrived to have a band of orphans wrecked and cast up upon an unheard-of island. Miss Smith and Doctor O'Malley, who are in charge of the orphans, are also saved. How Miss Smith makes her own laws, teaches her own ideas on religion and, in short, governs the orphans on this island makes a very funny story and gives many a chance for poking fun at some of the English customs.

Anne Rittenhouse is perhaps one of the most experienced and widely read fashion writers in this country. Her articles have appeared for years, first in newspapers and then in magazines. She has just written a book called "The Well-Dressed Woman," in which she discusses "clothes," clothes for the school girl, clothes for the working girl, clothes for the older woman in both town and country, fur coats and how to buy hats. There is something here for everyone, thin and fat, pale and florid, and it all makes interesting reading.

"Why the Weather?" by C. F. Brooks, associate professor of Meteorology and Climatology, Clark University, is an intensely interesting book on that most abused topic, the weather.

"Whether it be cold, whether it be hot, We must have the weather, whether or not."

says the old jingle, and in this authentic book Professor Brooks has written so that laymen as well as scientists may understand the ways of clouds, moisture, moons tipped up, rings around the moon and the old story of the ground hog. He also explains some of the old weather sayings that have misled the people. Also, if anyone is planning a party or picnic and is particularly anxious for a clear day, consult this book and find out if there is to be rain or sunshine.

The O. Henry Memorial Award Prize Stories are a collection of short stories reprinted from various magazines. Doctor Blanche Colton Williams, chairman of the committee on awards, says: "It looks as if this is going to be the best book that we have got together." Inez Haynes Irwin heads the list as first prize winner, with many well-known names following. Another compilation of short stories is by Edward J. O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien has made a collection of the best American short stories each year and while there is no prize attached to any of these stories they are always considered a very fine collection.

CURRENT EVENTS

little known. Our people have faith in his ability and are in sympathy with his simplicity and his program of economy.

The most striking note of national politics today is the stepping out of Hughes and the stepping in of Dawes. Using his only opportunity to make an address Dawes struck at the menace of filibustering, and asked the Senators to correct it. He has met with sarcasm but has the press and the country behind him.

When the discussion of disarmament is reopened (having been started by Hughes) it will give Kellogg the opportunity to show his metal. The Peace Protocol is buried. Britain could not sign it because her dominions objected. It is doubtful that both naval and land armaments will be discussed in the Washington Conference, though airplanes may be included.

France does not favor any pre-agreement of America and England. France will not give up armament until Britain gives a military guarantee.

The chief criticism of the present "Do-Nothing Congress" pertains to its methods rather than its accomplishments. Its bill to raise its own salaries was put through as a "rider" to an appropriation. The Lousanne treaty and the treaty with Cuba, granting her the jurisdiction of the Island of Pines. To date the news is that President Coolidge will give Mr. Warren a recess appointment (until December) if he is defeated in the Senate again. The Senate thinks that Warren's close association with the Sugar Trust would bar him from making a good Attorney General. The situation is serious, being a challenge to the Senate by the President.

New books reviewed by Mrs. Bean:

"What Price Glory"—a play.
"God's Stepchildren"—novel of Africa.

"Some Do Not"—considered coarse.

"The Ninth of November"—German life during the war.

"The Dark Hours"—a play portraying the trial and betrayal of our Lord, in which He is represented as a spirit only.

"The Constant Nymph"—a mixture of beautiful and gross portrayal.

"The Matriarch"—story of Viennese Jews.

"Life of Keats"—by Amy Lowell—a biography unanimously praised.

Eight children of the Saturday class gave a pretty dance, similar to the minuet. In costume and powdered wigs they were dainty and entertaining. The dancers were Eunice Griswold, Ruth Holter, Helen Kerigan, Walter and Alec. Ewald, Virginia Abel, Jerry Nash, Katherine Magee. Tea was served by Mrs. Dunlop and her committee.

GOODFELLOWSHIP CLUB

The Goodfellowship Club of the Narberth M. E. Church will meet in the church on Thursday, March 26. We are happy to announce that Rev. C. H. Shirk will be our guest and speaker. We extend a hearty invitation to all men of the community.

Ladies' Aid Meeting.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church will meet at the home of Mrs. George Bach, 406 Anthwyn road, on Wednesday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock.

All the ladies of the church are invited.

OLD MR. COLDBEEN WENT TO HIS COALBIN TO START THE WINTER'S FIRST FIRE WHEN HE GOT THERE THE COAL BIN WAS BARE, AND SO

HE PAID MORE FOR HIS COAL.

WASN'T he a foolish man to wait until October? He didn't know about the Big Spring and Summer Coal Sale. And now the question is—"Do you?" Folks profit by some summer sales and overlook the biggest bargain of the year. This sale of "Black Goods" happens every spring and summer. Now is the time when all coal is reduced. We would like to see you profit by this knowledge. So—in the air of Spring-time that makes us hanker after what is new, what is different.

THERE'S A SOMETHING

MILADY hunts new styles in dress and bonnet.

THE ARTIST hunts new scenes to reproduce.

THE ARCHITECT designs new homes for eager

HOUSE HUNTERS, who long to breathe suburban air.

THE MERCHANT—

Ah! that is where we come in. We look for something new to buy and sell. And from SPRING herself, we received the idea of adding to our usual line of wares a variety of things to make your garden a success.

Pure raw bone meal to nourish your grass and plants.

Many sizes of Savo flower boxes to hold the lovely trailing plants you like upon your window-sills.

And some cunning bird-houses for your feathered friends to tenant through the joyful summer days to come.

From SPRING came all these thoughts of new things to buy, and it is SPRING that should remind you of the advantage of ordering next winter's coal supply during April, when prices are generally the lowest.

An Ideal Resort for an Early Spring Vacation

With the closing days of the winter season, and its round of social activities and business cares, the Seashore sends forth a call forceful and cogent in its appeal to the pleasure seeker, and suggestive of days of restful ease and comfort for the tired worker seeking an early spring health-giving vacation.

Splendid hotels meet the needs of every purse and a hospitable welcome greets the coming guest.

Atlantic City Is Delightful in Early Spring

It is bright and joyous. It is a veritable city of sunshine by the sea. There is a tonic benefit in the ozone with every breath of air wafted from the ocean and health and recuperative force in the breezes from nearby forests of pine.

The sixty-foot-wide Boardwalk is always a colorful spectacle, with its magnificent hotels, rolling chairs, wonderful shops, theatres, concerts, attractive piers and an array of beauty and fashion, with the ever restless sea as a background to the pleasing picture.
